

Autumn Weddings Interesting Society--Engagements--Notes

WITH the summer season fast approaching its end there is but little record of gayety in any of the resorts and this is of a half hearted sort. Under ordinary circumstances the coming week would be the liveliest of the Newport season, and even with some of the proposed entertainments given up the week will be far from dull.

The lawn tennis tournament is sure to find the grounds of the Casino crowded daily as long as it lasts and the Red Cross fete at the Breakers on Friday will be one of the most successful events for a philanthropic purpose in many years. All the women of Newport are working with a will and their efforts, which are non-partisan, will reap a handsome sum of money to be devoted to the work of nursing the unfortunate soldiers abroad. The Breakers, Mrs. Vanderbilt's villa, where the fete is to be held, is one of the most imposing of the many beautiful places in Newport and its spacious grounds will make a fine setting for boethe and the array of handsomely dressed women at them. Tableaux vivants at night will be given in the ballroom of Mrs. Vanderbilt's villa.

Southampton has had a busy week with the tennis tournament and the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital. Everything has centered at the Meadow Club during the week, where on Thursday night the ball was given in a huge marquee placed on the lawn. Work of the Red Cross Society will be aided by the horse show to be held on Saturday on the grounds of the Suffolk County Hunt Club, which will be patronized by all in the vicinity of Southampton. Several engagements have been announced recently that have served to break the monotony of the season and plans for weddings have been made.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Josephine Southwick Pearson, elder daughter of the late Commander Frederick Pearson, U. S. N., to Beverly Bogert of this city in Trinity Church, Newport, on the afternoon of September 5 at 4 o'clock. After the ceremony there will be a reception at Angelsea, the villa of the bride's mother, which is situated on Ochre Point.

The bride will have her sister, Miss Lesley F. Pearson, as her only attendant. Clarence A. Bogert will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be E. Pennington Pearson and Frederick F. A. Pearson, brothers of the bride; John A. Gade, William C. Cammann, Charles Hayden, John F. Talmage and George Isham Scott.

Miss Alice Blaine Damrosch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch, will be married to Hall Pleasant Pennington of Baltimore at the summer home of her parents at Westport on the Lake, N. Y., on the afternoon of September 5. Miss Damrosch has been the guest recently of her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josias Pennington, at their country place in Deer Park, Maryland. She is a granddaughter of James G. Blaine, who was Secretary of State under President Garfield.

A wedding in Lenox, Mass., next month will be that of Miss Mary Mildred Turnure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Evans Turnure, to Roger Wolcott Griswold of Erie, Pa., in Trinity Church on the afternoon of September 12. The reception will take place at the country home of the bride's parents. Miss Turnure has chosen her sister, Miss Irene Turnure, as her maid of honor, and the other attendants will be the Misses Anna Alexandre, Katherine Lawrence, Anita Delafeld and Helen Turnbull. The Misses Ursula W. and Adele Griswold will be the flower girls. Eli Griswold, brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man. The ushers chosen include George E. Turnure, Jr., brother of the bride; William E. S. Griswold, John Sloane and George Taylor.

The wedding of Miss Sarah Spencer Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junius Spencer Morgan and niece of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, to Henry Burchell Gardner, son of the late Dr. Alfred W. Gardner, will take place on September 12 at the summer place of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan on Constitution Hill.

A country wedding on Long Island on the afternoon of September 12 will be that of Miss Margaret Barnard Wagstaff, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff, to John Fairchild Adams, only son of Mrs. Horatio Adams of Glen Cove. It will be celebrated in Christ Episcopal Church in West Islip. Afterward there will be a reception at Tahulah, the country home of the bride's parents in West Islip.

Invitations will soon be sent out for the wedding of Miss Mary Burnett, daughter of the late Charles Burnett of Southboro, Mass., to William Grosvenor of Providence, R. I. The wedding ceremony will take place in Peterboro, N. H., on September 16.

Miss Theresa Van den H. Ingersoll, daughter of Colin Macrae Ingersoll, will be married to Dr. John H. Cunningham of Boston in Grace Church Chantry on the afternoon of October 3 at 4 o'clock. Miss Collins Ingersoll will be her sister's maid of honor and the Misses Edith Leslie Emmet and Alice Haven will be the bridesmaids. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's father, 167 East Seventy-first street.

Among the recently announced engagements was that of Miss Beulah Eaton Hepburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, to Lieut. Robert R. M. Emmet, U. S. N., a son of Col. and Mrs. Robert Temple Emmet of New Rochelle.

Miss Hepburn, who has been passing the summer at the country place of her parents in Ridgefield, Conn., is prominent in society in New York, where she has taken part in many of the entertainments given by amateurs. She was introduced to society two years ago and has a younger sister, Miss Cordelia Hepburn.

Lieut. Emmet is related to several prominent families of that name in this city and he is in the junior grade in the navy. His brother, Herman Le Roy Emmet, married Miss Helen D. Auerbach. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Cornelia de Lancey Cammann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Cammann, Jr., to William S. Fairchild, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Fairchild.

Miss Cammann, who was introduced to society two seasons ago, has been passing the summer with her parents in Lake Sunapee, N. H. Their New York home is at 234 West Seventy-fourth street.

An interesting engagement recently announced was that of Miss Alice Jay Little and Saburo Kurusu, Japanese Consul in Chicago. Miss Little, who is a daughter of the late James Jay Little, lives in the Bellmore Apartment, this city, with her mother. Mr. Kurusu has held diplomatic positions in China and Honolulu and was acting Consul-General in New York before going to Chicago. The wedding will take place early in October.

Mrs. James H. Gould of 201 West Fifty-fifth street has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Emily

Mr. Jones was graduated from Yale in 1908 and is a member of the St. Anthony and Rumson Country clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Harsen Halsted of Morristown, who are passing the summer at East Hampton, L. I., have announced the engagement of their eldest daughter, Miss Ethel Latimer Halsted, to Joseph Wiggins Greacen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Greacen of New York. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Shepherd, who are passing the summer at Bar Harbor, recently gave a dinner there at the Swimming Club. Among their guests were Mrs. Frederic Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Sullivan of Radnor, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Wellman, Mrs. Edward F. Winslow of Paris, Mrs. Dave
